SUBJECT: Basic School Safety and Security Officer Equivalency Training

TO: Michael Pennington
Executive Director

THROUGH: Shaun White (SW)
School Safety & Security

FROM: Kirsten Kenyon, Director
Office of Research, Child Advocacy and School Safety & Security

Article XIII-C of the Pennsylvania School Code provides for the commission to approve school security personnel trainings that are equivalent to the National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO) Basic SRO Course. On December 11, 2019, the Commission delegated authority to the PCCD staff, with the approval of the PCCD Executive Director, to publish and post all approved Basic School Safety and Security Officer Equivalency Trainings.

PCCD will post, on its website, a listing of the Basic School Safety and Security Officer Equivalency Training providers that have met the criteria associated with the development and delivery of curriculum, and participant materials. The list will serve as an informational resource for school security personnel providers and school entities.

Friends of Safe Schools U.S.A; Responseology Consulting and Safety Solutions, LLC and has met the necessary requirements to provide the Basic School Safety and Security Officer Equivalency Training in a classroom format.
